You must include all your relevant education and experience on your Online Education and Experience Test. You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (August 21, 2018) to submit your Online Education and Experience Test; however, once you submit your Online Education and Experience Test, you will not be permitted to submit new or additional information about your education and/or experience online. You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after January 31, 2019 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period.

This online examination consists of the following sections:

- Application, including the Notice of Examination and payment of fee
- Education Level
- Employment/Work Experience
- Survey

There are detailed instructions online for each of these sections, so make sure that you read these instructions before you begin to fill out each section. In addition, the Overview and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs), which are accessible throughout the examination process, contain valuable information about the online examination process and civil service procedures governing examinations. This guide is a brief summary of some of the items found in these instructions.

1. You must complete the application and examination by midnight, Eastern time, of the last day of the application period. If you do not complete your application, which includes payment of the filing fee, there will be no record that you applied for the examination.
2. You must meet qualification requirements in order to qualify for this examination. If you do not meet the qualification requirements, you will be marked Not Qualified and your application fee will not be returned.
3. Completing the Education Level section: For each degree you select, you must fill out the information requested. If you were educated in a foreign country, you must have an evaluation of your education sent directly to DCAS by a DCAS approved foreign education evaluation service no later than eight weeks from the last day of the application period. Your examination will be tentatively scored based on the education level you claim. Your foreign education evaluation will then be reviewed by DCAS examiners. If the evaluation differs from what you claimed, or if you did not submit a foreign education evaluation, your examination will be re-scored, and you may be marked Not Qualified.
4. Completing the Employment/Work Experience section: For each job you must fill out the information requested. A maximum of one year of full-time experience will be credited for each 12-month period. Part-time experience will be pro-rated according to the following ranges:

35 hours per week or more = 100%

34 hours per week or less will be pro-rated as a percentage of a 35 hour work week.

For each job you must select the tasks you performed from the tasks listed in the drop-down menu. In order for a job to be credited, you must select at least 6 tasks from the tasks listed under either Task Category #0100 or Task Category #0200, or Task Category #0300. For example, if you select 2 tasks from Task Category #0100 and you select 4 tasks from Task Category #0200, the job will not receive credit.

Residency Requirement Advisory: Under New York City Administrative Code Section 12-120, you might need to be a resident of the City of New York within 90 days of the date you are appointed to this position. Since residency requirements vary by title, appointing agency and length of service, consult the appointing agency's personnel office at the time of the appointment interview to find out if City residency is required.

English Requirement:

You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity:

Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services.

HOW TO APPLY:

If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, submit an application on the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to file online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can submit an application to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts, but some accounts may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed by a staff member and resolved. Email notification will be sent to those creating accounts that require additional documentation before they can be resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets.

If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements, visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at <https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEE/oasys/FAQFeeWaiver.aspx>.

You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to file for this examination online and submit a money order payable to DCAS (Exams) or to submit documentation for a fee waiver. The centers will be open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM:

REQUIRED INFORMATION:

1. Application for Examination: Follow the online instructions, including those relating to the payment of fee and, if applicable, those found in the Special Circumstances Guide.
2. Foreign Education Evaluation Guide: (Required only if you need credit for your foreign education to meet the education and experience requirements): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide located on the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/foreigneducation.pdf. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to DCAS no later than eight weeks from the last day of the application period.

THE TEST:

The multiple-choice test may be given at a computer terminal or in paper and pencil format. You will be informed of the format on your Admission Notice. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test.

The multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain abilities determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of a Staff Analyst (SA). Task areas to be tested are as follows: budget administration, accounting, economic or financial administration, fiscal or economic research and/or fiscal management; procedural, organizational, and operational studies, such as management or methods analysis, program evaluation, and economic planning; and personnel administration, such as recruitment, position classification, personnel relations, employee benefits, staff development, etc.

The test may include questions requiring standards of proper employee ethical conduct and the use of any of the following abilities:

Descriptive Statistics - the ability to apply given statistical formulas, including calculation of means, medians and modes. Example: A SA may use statistical analyses to prepare fiscal requests, conduct economic studies, and perform management studies and workforce planning.

Quantitative Analysis & Interpretation - the ability to analyze, interpret and understand the underlying principles and meaning of numerical data; recognize inconsistencies and errors in reports containing numerical data. May involve making projections. Example: A SA may analyze and interpret data related to budget development, personnel related management and staffing, and organizational research related data sets, etc.

Planning & Organizing - the ability to establish a method of execution to accomplish a specific goal over an extended period of time; determine appropriate assignments and allocation of resources, including the ability to prioritize tasks and objectives based on importance, time constraints, etc. Example: A SA may prepare budget proposals, determine the need for vendor services, and plan employment or recruitment programs, etc.

Written Expression - the ability to appropriately communicate information and ideas in written words and sentences so intended audience will understand. This may involve reviewing and editing correspondence and other written materials. Example: A SA may prepare expenditure and revenue reports, procedure manuals, test materials, etc.

Number Facility - the degree to which adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing can be done quickly and correctly. This can be steps in other operations like finding percentages. This also includes arithmetic reasoning. Example: A SA may monitor variances between planned and actual expenditures of a budget and determine the percentage change.

Questions based on the above abilities will be concerned with budgeting, procedural, organizational, and operational studies and personnel administration. Certain questions may need to be answered on the basis of documents or other information supplied to the candidates on the date of the multiple-choice exam.

EXAM SITE ADMISSION:

You will be sent an Admission Notice in the mail about 10 days before the date on which testing is expected to begin. If you do not receive an Admission Notice at least 4 days before the date on which testing is expected to begin, you must go to Administration, Customer, and Exam Support, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, Manhattan, to obtain an Admission Notice. Test site assignments will take your address into consideration, but nearness to your address cannot be guaranteed.

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during, or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other people, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the test.

Required Identification: You are required to bring one (1) form of valid (non-expired) signature and photo bearing identification to the test site. The name that was used to apply for the exam must match the first and last name on the photo ID. A list of acceptable identification documents is provided below. If you do not have an acceptable ID, you may be denied testing. Acceptable forms of identification (bring one) are as follows: State issued driver's license, City or State issued identification card, IDNYC, US Government issued Passport, US Government issued Military Identification Card, US Government issued Alien Registration Card, Employer ID with photo, or Student ID with photo.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

CHANGE OF MAILING AND/OR EMAIL ADDRESS:

It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address and/or email address. If we do not have your correct mailing and/or email address, you will not receive information about your exam(s), consideration for appointment and/or important information that may require a response by a specified deadline. Change of mailing and/or email address requests submitted to any agency other than DCAS, such as to the United States Postal Service, will NOT update your records with DCAS.

To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit the change request by mail or in person. Your request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), previous mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address. Your request can be mailed to DCAS Records Room, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM. The following link will provide you with the DCAS Data Correction Form: <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/dp148a.pdf>.

THE TEST RESULTS:

If you are found "Qualified" and pass the multiple-choice test, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS:

Make-up Test: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test on the regular test date(s) for any of the following reasons:

1. compulsory attendance before a public body;
2. on-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City;
3. absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City;
4. absence due to ordered military duty;
5. a clear error for which the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the examining agency is responsible; or
6. a temporary disability, pregnancy-related, or child-birth-related condition preventing you from taking the test.

To request a make-up test, contact Administration, Customer, and Exam Support in person or by mail at 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007, as soon as possible and provide documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test.
