

PROGRAM FOR DRIVER IMPROVEMENT

John Bell, an approved accident prevention course teacher, will conduct a defensive driving class in October at the OSA office, 220 East 23rd Street, Suite 707, Manhattan (between 2nd and 3rd Avenues). This is an approved accident prevention course.

The class has a six hour requirement and will be held on two successive Thursday evenings – October 8 and 15, 2009 from 6–9PM. You must attend both sessions. Refreshments will be served at 5:30 PM.

If you successfully complete the course, you can save 10% off the cost of your automobile insurance or reduce 4 points from your driving record.

Even if you have taken these classes before, you must take them again every three years for insurance reduction or every eighteen months for point reduction.

OSA participants will receive a discounted course rate of $35 if more than seven persons attend. Relatives and friends are invited..You will be notified if a sufficient number of attendees register and the course will be given.

Send a check for $35 payable to “John Bell,” along with the form below, to reserve your seat in the course. Do not make the check out to OSA! If fewer than seven people sign up, you will be notified that the classes are cancelled.

Please send in your check and coupon by October 1, 2009.
