

OSA MEMBERS & FRIENDS JOIN US FOR A LABOR DAY RALLY!

This year, we celebrate Labor Day, not with a parade, but with a massive city-wide union demonstration against the Bush Administration's anti-worker agenda. The Organization of Staff Analysts invites all members and friends to join our contingent September 1, 2004 as the labor movement raises its voice to say... enough is enough! The larger the crowd, the louder the message.

Join union members from across the country as we rally to stop Bush's misguided priorities and anti-working family policies, and tell him...

WE'RE TAKING BACK AMERICA
LABOR DAY 2004 • AFL-CIO

MEETING PLACE

When? Wednesday,
September 1 at 2:30pm.

Where? The OSA
union office, 220 East
23rd Street, Room 709.

GEORGE W. BUSH IS BAD FOR THE AMERICAN WORKER

He has used — and abused — his time in the White House to...

- weaken worker's rights to form unions
- increase the number of outsourced jobs overseas
- undermine public education
- privatize Social Security
- ignore soaring healthcare costs
- and single-handedly reduce overtime pay for millions of American workers

Enough is enough! It is time for the labor movement to raise our powerful voice.

Before leaving for the rally, members and friends will be issued OSA hats, t-shirts and balloons. We will leave for the rally at approximately 3pm — our destination is 23rd Street and 8th Avenue. After the rally, we will return to the OSA office for refreshments. Please consider taking a few hours of time and join us.
