

Made in the USA

Film and Discussion about
Manufacturing Jobs

HOW WE LOST THEM, WHY WE NEED THEM, AND HOW WE BRING THEM BACK

Farewell to Factory Towns?

Award-winning documentary by Maynard Seider... explores the future of former factory towns as they struggle from the devastation of deindustrialization during this period of austerity, war, and attacks on labor...

SPEAKERS:

Maynard Seider, filmmaker, author, professor and union activist

Isabel Hill, filmmaker (Made in Brooklyn; Brooklyn Matters) photographer, urban planner and architectural historian

Thursday, October 10, 6-8:30 p.m.

Organization of Staff Analysts

220 East 23rd Street, Room 707

(between Second and Third Avenues, NYC)

Free and open to the public

Light refreshments will be served

Sponsored by the New York Labor History Association

Co-sponsors:

Labor Arts (LaborArts.org), Women's Rights Committee,

United Federation of Teachers and Workers Unite Film Festival

